(a) whether it is a fact that the Coal India Ltd. has formulated a time bound programme for labour productivity in underground mines;

(b) whether it is a fact that exit policy/ retrenchment is one of the major features of this programme; and

(c) if so, what are the other features of this programme together with the details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF COAL (SHRI AJIT KUMAR PANJA) : (a) Coal India Limited have prepared a plan of action, which, inter-alia, includes schemes for improvement of production and productivity of identified underground mines, improving operational efficiency and production in open cast projects, increasing production of coking coal, coal quality improvement and rationalisation of human resource.

(b) No, Sir.

(c) Does not arise.

Welfare Targets of CCL

1471. SHRIMATI KAMLA SINHA : Will the Minister of COAL be pleased to state :

(a) what were the welfare targets for CCL in the years 1991-92 and 1992-93;

(b) whether drinking water, proper sanitation, education, health, roads are the basic parameters of welfare; and

(c) if so, the details of the extent to which these have been implemented in CCL?

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF COAL (SHRI AJIT KUMAR PANJA) : (a) The following were the welfare targets for CCL for the year 1991-92 and 1992-93 :

	1991-92	1992-93
Housing	2000	2500
Additional population covered by water supply	15000	12500
Family Planning	2500	2500
Canteen	—	1
School Building	3	2
Hospital Buildings	—	2
Ambulances	—	6
Roads	25 Kms.	54 Kms.

(b) Yes, Sir.

(c) The extent of achievement against targets is as under :—

	1991-92	1992-93
Housing	1317	1155
Additional population covered by water supply	6585	5775
Family Planning	3653	3265
Canteen	—	1
School Building	3	2
Hospital Building	—	1
Ambulances	—	6
Roads	24.57 Kms	53.99 Kms.